Holly Payne was struck by a drunk driver in 1994 and left unable to walk for nearly a year. The driver wrote a letter asking for her forgiveness. Rather than respond with a letter, she wrote him Kingdom of Simplicity with the hope that he could forgive himself someday. Books will be available at the door.

Silent auction and portion of book sales benefit Litquake, the Bay Area's largest annual literary festival, Oct. 9-17, 2009. Start bidding today! www.kingdomofsimplicity.com/auction.html
